

PANDEMONIUM REIGNS WHEN SMITH IS PRESENTED

LOWDEN IS MILK MAN FOR NATION SAYS PRESS AGENT

Dairy Work He Directs of Untold Value to the Whole People.

Chicago, June 26.—Since former Governor Frank O. Lowden declined the vice presidency of the United States because he preferred to stick to his job as president of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, thousands of Americans have inquired what sort of a "cow club" it must be that needs a man of presidential caliber to steer its ship.

The publicity department of the Illinois Products Exposition, a child of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, is proclaiming to the world that Col. Lowden had sound reasons for turning down an honor that only one other man in history has refused.

Nation's Milk Man.

"Col. Lowden comes nearer being the nation's milkman than any other man," says the exposition press agent. "In his effort to increase the supply and thus cheapen the cost of milk his 'cow club' spent for operating expenses alone in 1923 the sum of $586,736.22."

"Maintenance of the secretary's office at Brattleboro, Vt., cost $262,145. Disbursements at the advanced registry office, Delevan, Wis., were $72,234. The extension service department in Chicago spent $202,387. Col. Lowden and his cabinet serve without pay, 265 days in the year. The 'offices' expenses of the president for the year were $34. Col. Lowden also is president of the American Dairy Federation, which induced the last Congress to elevate the dairy division of the Bureau of Animal Husbandry to the dignity of an independent bureau."

"Members of Col. Lowden's 'cow club' own property worth billions, devoted to milk production. The total oil products of all the oil wells in the United States is a mere dribble compared to the flow of milk induced by the nation's dairy men."

Furnish Most Milk.

"Holsteins furnish 65 to 70 per cent of the nation's fluid milk supply. Of 99 cows in the United States that have produced more than 1,000 pounds of butter fat in a year, 81 are Holsteins. Fifty-four Holsteins have records above 30,000 pounds of milk a year."

"Holstein breeders pay as high as $100,000 for a single bull without telling the reporters about it. Lowden wears boots every day at Sinnissippi farm in Ogle county. He is one of the men who are striving to raise the average annual production of the American cow from 4,000 pounds to 15,000 pounds. That is why Col. Lowden is content to see his friend, Gen. Charles G. Dawes, preside over the United States Senate, while he tends the cows."

"The achievements of the livestock men will be only one of the interesting disclosures to be made at the Illinois Products Exposition, to be held Oct. 9-18, inclusive, at the American Exposition Palace, 685 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago."

A cow kicked over the lamp that caused the Chicago fire of 1871, but Illinois politicians say this is the first instance where a cow kicked a hole in their calculations of a national political party.

Pick Ralston to Climb Along About 6th Ballot

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, June 26.—"Watch Ralston begin to climb about the sixth ballot."

This was the word that the Hoosier senator's backers began today to pass out after talks with delegates and leaders.

Another tip being passed by the Ralston crowd is that the senator's first gains will be from middlewestern states which are divided now between McAdoo and other candidates. They explain that several of the states which contain many Ralston supporters are bound by unit rule or instructions to vote for candidates whom many on the delegations really are not for, but that they must carry out their instructions.

Ralston supporters hope that the vote spread will start in the middle-west and grow steadily in all directions.

Dixon Money Should Be Spent at Home

Dixon money should be spent in Dixon.

Our home merchants have a legitimate right to business within a certain territory if they demonstrate a capability to meet the requirements of that territory. No one claims that our home men have not kept pace with the general progress of the community.

The strangest of all the strangers is the mail order houses. Dealing often in "seconds" or damaged goods they some times make a fictitious showing in values. The average purchaser cannot possibly know the true worth of merchandise—not until it is subject to the test of use. With the local dealer one always has some recourse but none whatever with the mail order people. It is "unsight and unseen" trading, on his part, but cash with order for the other fellow.

As a matter of enlightened self interest, it is not better that expenditures should enhance the business of the city which supports the purchaser?

RECEIVE MORE DETAILS STORM NEAR BUSHNELL

Houses and Church Wrecked; No One in Territory Hurt.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Galesburg, Ill., June 26.—Telephone service was renewed between Galesburg and Bushnell this morning and first authentic reports of Tuesday night's cyclone in the Cottonwood neighborhood on the Cannon Ball Trail four miles south of Bushnell were received here.

The Cottonwood school house and church building and half a dozen modern farm houses in an area two miles long east and west and a mile wide north and south were completely demolished and debris scattered over the farms.

Out of 28 people in the houses at 7 o'clock in the evening, when the storm struck, no one was killed and the only person seriously injured was Mrs. Morrow, an elderly woman, who had two ribs broken.

After the storm had blown the house and buildings of Verne Thompson all over the place, the several members of the family who had been scattered many rods apart called themselves together much as a bevy of quail would get together after separated by a hunter. A year-old baby was the last member of the family found, but was lying uninjured on a mattress with a looking glass over it one hundred feet from where the house had stood.

Church Blown Away.

Forty workers on the hard road just south of the cyclone area had taken refuge in the Cottonwood church, when they saw the storm approaching. The church was blown completely away but none of the men were injured, except for minor bruises.

Bushnell and Macomb, which depend on current from the Keokuk, Iowa, dam were still without power today. Adair, Burdolph and Table Grove together had a dozen fires caused by lightning but they were not in the cyclone area. In the Cottonwood neighborhood hundreds of chickens were killed and there was much loss of hogs, cattle and horses, many of them animals being so badly hurt they had to be killed after the storm.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatcher Grover of St. Louis, Mo., who have been guests of City Clerk and Mrs. Blake C. Grover, for several days, returned to their home this afternoon, making the trip by auto.

KLAN AND LEAGUE PARAMOUNT ISSUES BEFORE DEMOCRATS

Efforts to Frame Platform Satisfactory to All Seem in Vain.

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, June 26.—A tentative draft of the democratic platform as containing alternative proposals on the Ku Klux Klan and the League of Nations, was submitted today to the platform sub-committee of eleven.

It was prepared by Chairman Homer S. Cummings and Senator Key Pittman of Nevada. After the sub-committee assembled it summoned Owen D. Young, New York, for a brief discussion of his plank proposing American cooperation with other nations through the League of Nations or other associations criticizing its foreign policy and denouncing the use of unofficial observers abroad.

William Jennings Bryan presided in the absence of Chairman Cummings, who with Senator Pittman had remained up all night whipping the platform draft into shape.

The sub-committee hoped to furnish its work before night and to have the platform ready for consideration by the convention tomorrow.

There was considerable committee discussion of the plank dealing with corruption in public office. As presented, this plank scores the republican party in connection with the oil scandal and attacks Albert B. Fall for the naval oil leases to Edward L. Doheny and Harry F. Sinclair.

President Coolidge also came in for attack on the plank declaring that the investigations which led to the disclosures were permitted by "an unwilling and reluctant executive."

Chairman Cummings who had arrived meantime, issued this statement:

"The present situation is this: Senator Pittman and myself completed the platform and the full sub-committee is now having read to it the platform very carefully and word for word and making certain changes. We have not gone over, up to this time, more than one-fourth of the platform."

Platform to Be Long.

"After lunch we will take up controversial planks, which include the League of Nations, the so-called Klan plank and one or two others. Included possibly may be the question of law enforcement."

"After we get to the controversial subjects, it is a fair guess that there will be considerable combat and these matters may be disposed by the sub-committee presenting to the full committee alternative planks. I would say now that it is almost certain that there will be one subject on which alternative planks will be submitted."

"I do not think that we can get the platform to the full committee until late tonight and I see no prospect of reporting the platform to the convention until tomorrow. The platform is rather long."

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, June 26.—With the Ku Klux Klan and the League of Nations left as the paramount issues, Senator S. Cummings of Connecticut and Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, toiled through the early hours today over a tentative draft of the democratic platform.

Mr. Cummings, chairman of the platform committee, and Senator Pittman were given the task of drawing up the first draft early this morning after the sub-committee of eleven appointed to formulate a declaration of principles had decided to submit to the whole committee alternative proposals on both the Klan and League.

The drafting committee had managed, however, after working 11 hours, to figure out the major issues involving farm relief and prohibition, declarations and was called at 11 o'clock this morning to pass upon the Cummings-Pittman draft prior to making a report to the whole committee.

For Law Enforcement.

With reference to prohibition, the sub-committee decided upon a declaration for law enforcement without naming the eighteenth amendment or the Volstead Act and on farm relief it agreed upon endorsement of the Curtis-Aswell bill and demands for tariff reform and revision of rail and water transportation rate structures. The republican administration is vigorously criticized.

One of the principal party declarations—the plank on corruption in public office—was easily disposed of when reached.

Other planks quickly agreed upon included declaration for federal regulation and control of corporations and combinations controlling necessities with specific mention of the anthracite industry; immediate independence for the Philippines under conditions set forth in the Jones Act; legislation to prohibit the "watering" stock and improvement of waterways and highways with measures to safeguard them for the public welfare.

There was discussion in the drafting committee of recommending to the full platform committee that it put the Klan issue up to the convention, but the plan of submitting two drafts on the subject was decided upon.

MANAGERS WORK TO RETAIN ALL McADOO VOTES

Every Effort to Prevent Deflections is Being Made.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, June 26.—Determined to force the nomination of William G. McAdoo at an early stage of the democratic convention balloting, his managers settled down grimly today to the serious business of preventing last minute swing-away of delegates.

Reports regarding the situation in various delegations were brought in to McAdoo headquarters by scouts. Some indicated, it was said that there was talk that the California's strength was waning.

Rumor had it that a dozen or more Tennessee delegates, instructed to vote as a unit for McAdoo, were talking of bolting to John W. Davis; that part of the Iowa delegation on an early ballot would swing away from McAdoo; that there was defection in other delegations that would prove costly to Mr. McAdoo.

Apparently optimistic, the McAdoo managers insisted they had accurate information that all delegations pledged to McAdoo would be faithful to the last.

Return from North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert and family have returned from a pleasant visit of a few weeks in North Dakota, which they enjoyed very much. In 1910 Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert went to Dakota on a homestead stake and lived there until 1912. As usual, they grew homestead for Illinois, and same back, but on their visit this time to North Dakota where they still hold 150 acres, they were most favorably impressed with the state. North Dakota is like a garden this year, everything green and beautiful, and the crops above the average. Mrs. Gilbert says the corn is further advanced than Illinois corn, although everyone knows that things are backward in this state this year. She stated that they have struck oil in North Dakota, three big wells already being started. This is about three miles from Lemmon, North Dakota.

Washington, June 26.—Cyrus E. Woods, Ambassador at Tokyo, formally presented his resignation to President Coolidge today and it was accepted.

Numerous threats have been made to bring the issue before the convention regardless of the platform committee's final decision.

Dissatisfaction of the law enforcement plank also was expressed in some quarters.

GALENA AVE. BECOMES BLVD. TOMORROW A. M.

All Traffic Entering Street Must Come to Full Stop.

Commissioner Charles E. Miller of the department of public health and safety, this morning as soon as the sun was up, superintended the painting of the "Stop" signs at the street intersections with Galena avenue from Seventh street on the south side of the river to the Illinois Central tracks on the north side. These warnings will serve until the metal signs have been placed.

The ordinance which makes Galena avenue a preferential street goes into effect tomorrow morning and will be rigidly enforced. Many drivers have been getting ready for the ordinance by stopping before entering traffic on Galena avenue, while a greater majority have not. The police will be instructed to watch all of the streets entering Galena avenue and enforce the boulevard stop system.

While Galena avenue is the first street to be laid out as a boulevard stop thoroughfare, Commissioner Miller has received many requests to elaborate upon the plan and designate other streets in the ordinance, where traffic will be protected by a like plan.

SMITH PLACED IN NOMINATION TODAY BY CRIPPLED MAN

Franklin Roosevelt Had to Be Lifted from Chair for Speech.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, June 26.—Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, was formally placed before the Democratic-National Convention today for nomination for the Presidency of the United States. In course of the presentation of his name, Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself nominated for the vice-presidency four years ago at the San Francisco convention and now serving as campaign manager for Mr. Smith, said the New York governor "is the most dangerous adversary that the Republican party ever had to fear" and his name "spells victory."

After a comprehensive recital of Governor Smith's record during the years he has served in public office, picturing him as the warrior "invincible in defense of right and in attack on wrong," Mr. Roosevelt said, "The Democracy of America will stand without fear and without hesitation loyally behind" Mr. Smith as "the nominee of the convention."

"Picture the coming campaign," Mr. Roosevelt said, "Imagine ringing through the halls of the nation this man's denunciation of the official corruption, of un-American isolation, of sordid tariffs for the benefit of the few, attacking only he can, the Republican onslaught on the reserve powers of the states. Imagine his thrust and his genial sarcasm burning out the truth where all men can see it; the eloquence of his simple clean-cut oratory; the wave of understanding and belief in him which will follow his steps."

Mr. Roosevelt told the convention its "Against Corruption"

Mr. Roosevelt told the convention its candidate "must be able to stand upon a clear ethical ground against corruption in government," adding that "our governor for over 20 years in public office has withstood the white light of publicity upon whom it has pitilessly beaten and revealed only spotless integrity."

"The country cries out in consternation and contempt over the continued dissensions between the executive and the legislative branches of the government during the last four years," Mr. Roosevelt continued. "Under the complete lack of leadership in a Republican White House and a Republican Capitol, we have had all of the checks but none of the balances," which he said, the Constitution, in theory, provided.

"Therefore, we must give to the country," he said, "a president experienced in administration and capable of restoring teamwork and good will between the executive and the congress. These qualifications are rare, but I submit to you no experiment. This man's record is history. It has brought the highest commendation from the citizens of this state, men, and women, Republican and Democrat, farmer and city dwellers alike."

Would Mark New Era

"His inauguration as President would mark the beginning of a new era of good feeling and practical accomplishment between the President and the congress of the United States."

Mr. Roosevelt said if Governor Smith was given an opportunity for wider service he "will make the dry bones rattle in Washington," and "no longer will cynics and pessimists point the finger of scorn at our executive machinery."

The speaker referred again to the "complete lack of leadership of those now in power," and continued:

"We need a President, one in whom the masses of the people, the great cross-section of American public opinion will regain their lost faith. We need a President, not a man who will satisfy some of the sections of the country, but one who will satisfy the relations of labor and capital, the farmer and city dwellers, the manufacturer and consumer, the rich and poor have become so complex in our national life that problems have arisen acute beyond the dreams of our forefathers, and calling for the steady guiding hand of one whose voice will be heeded by the vast majority of those who make up the 116,000,000 of our population."

Has Won Confidence

"Confidence and faith such as this has been won by the governor of this state. The masses of labor took him as a protector and good friend. The honest business man knows that he has never sought personal preferment by demagogic attack on honest business. The farmers who in this state raise crops valued at hundreds of millions of dollars bear willing testimony of his years of service in their behalf, aiding them to better living conditions and more economic distribution of the produce of the farm."

"With him we can win. This governor of ours is the most dangerous adversary that the Republican party ever had to fear and you, in convention here assembled, owe it to the nation to choose a candidate whose name spells victory. He has been elected to office seventeen times. x x x x This is an overwhelming demonstration of ability to command the confidence of the great electorate."

"Much of the romance of Lincoln is in the life story of our governor. Born

Harry Tarrant Chiverton, for many years prominent in Dixon business circles, passed away at his home, 615 North Hennepin avenue, this morning at 4 o'clock. He had been confined to his home for three weeks, suffering from a complication of ailments. He had been in failing health for several weeks.

Mr. Chiverton was born at Temperance Hill near Amboy, August 9, 1865 and had been a life-long resident of Lee county. When a young man he came to Dixon and for several years had been associated with his brother Frank in a thriving butcher business on the north side. Several months ago he retired from active business and after a rest of a few months, took charge of the market at the Mathias store, where he remained until his illness forced him to retire.

Funeral services will be conducted from the late home Saturday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Kenneth Hurst, acting pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, officiating and with interment in Oakwood.

Says Letter Carriers May Discard Hot Coats

An order giving permission to mail carriers to appear without their coats during the heated season has been issued by John H. Bartlett, acting postmaster general.

The order reads: "Having in mind the comfort and health of letter carriers the following order is hereby transmitted:

"During the heated season postmasters may permit letter carriers to wear a neat shirt waist or loose fitting blouse instead of their regulation coat and vest, the same to be made of light gray chambray, gingham, light gray chad or other light gray washable material, to be worn with turndown collar, dark tie and neat belt."

"If for any good reason a carrier has not provided himself with the foregoing summer wear or if the heat at times is so intense that even this in your judgment should be dispensed with temporarily, postmasters are authorized to permit carriers to leave off the same, wearing a shirt and belt, provided, however, that the shirt should be whole and tidy and preferably light gray or white in color."

Dixon Boys' Band Gave Concert on Amboy Street

The Dixon Y. M. C. A. Boys' band played its opening concert of the season at Amboy last evening, and a crowd of several hundred people from Amboy and surrounding country assembled and enjoyed the program. The business men of Amboy recently conducted a campaign for funds to finance a series of band concerts during the summer months. It was decided to hold the concerts every Wednesday evening and a band stand was constructed in the business district and wired with several electric lights.

Council Adheres to Scheme for Sewers

A special meeting of the city council was held last evening at 7:30 at the city hall when the council reconsidered the proposed ordinance covering the construction of a storm and sanitary sewer system in the west end of the city. The original scheme after being materially modified, was passed by the council.

of American-born parents, he took upon himself while still a boy the responsibility for the support of his family. A wage earner, toiling with his hands, this man in the space of twenty years without fortune, without fortuitous aid, with nothing to rely upon except his own indomitable courage, his own unflinching perseverance, his own magnificent ability, has risen to be a commanding and outstanding figure in the life of the nation."

CHEERING FOR THE GOVERNOR LASTS AN HOUR

Hired Noise Makers in Galleries Furnished Most of Racket

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Madison Square Garden, New York June 26.—Flooding through another day of oratory, demonstrations and racket, the democratic national convention was steadily working its way to the point of balloting for a candidate. After an upset of the day's plans at the outset had started the proceedings with a renewed demonstration for William G. McAdoo, the Smith people got squared around with the nomination of the governor by Franklin D. Roosevelt, they staged the longest, loudest and lustiest demonstration of the convention to date.

May Continue Session

Convention managers were planning to hold the session through until all nominations were in and then probably take a brief recess and get a start on the balloting.

Such a proceeding might make it necessary to begin balloting before the platform committee makes its report and there was some question as to whether such a plan could be carried out.

The platform builders worked steadily today while the convention was in session.

The Smith demonstration was aided and pushed along by a complete organization of demonstrators, hundreds of whom marched into the hall from the outside. Galleries and guest sections obviously filled with friends of the New York governor for today's event let up a continuous series of yells, howls and whistles.

Roosevelt Aroused Them

No sooner had Franklin D. Roosevelt finished his speech than the racket broke loose. Bands, rosters armed with megaphones, cheer leaders, singers and others with all the equipment of professional demonstrators burst out into the jammed aisles and began a procession. It appeared that the only filled space was taking part in the demonstration. The other section of the delegate space gave no evidence of joining the Smith movement. In the machinery of the demonstration about every device seen heretofore and many new ones appeared. Children dressed as ragamuffins, others as newbies, had automobile license plates hung around their necks bearing the words, "Al Smith."

The fathers who presumably had rented the children out for the occasion tried to balance some of them on the high rail about the speakers' stand, fifteen feet above the floor with the result that the youngsters were scared to death and bellowed lustily.

Although state standards were carried into the procession the delegate spaces remained well filled while it was going on. The galleries, the professional demonstrators and the rosters who had been picked into the galleries up under the rafters and along every nook and cranny on the floor, made the bulk of the noise and at times actually drowned out the band.

Long before the convention convened, preparations for the demonstration for Governor Smith were going forward. Several hundred men and women, wearing "Smith for president" ribbons, and equipped with devices for raising a racket, filed into the unassigned upper sections of the galleries.

Some of the rosters could not suppress their enthusiasm and group after group burst into Smith campaign songs. Bundles of small American flags were passed around and the gallery was adrift with color, it was to be Al Smith's inning and his friends were making the most of it.

The early hour of assembling and cooler weather helped pep up the Smith men.

As the hour set for opening the convention passed, some indications of the coming demonstration began to appear also on the convention floor. At all entrances to the arena were delegates were seated special sections at arms hung out the "delegates only" signs. But somehow or other many of the men and women who had come to the garden to whoop it up for Smith got past into the crowded aisles, just as the McAdoo rosters had done at yesterday's session.

Walsh Sheds Hot Clothes

Shortly after 10:30, Permanent Chairman Walsh appeared on the platform. He had shed the long tailed suit of black in which he took command yesterday and was attired in white flannel trousers and a blue serge coat, his usual senate chamber rig.

At that hour not a third of the delegates were in their places and the galleries were filling up slowly.

A group of nine Dixon women motored to Sterling yesterday where they were guests of the Sterling women of the Rock River Country club, being entertained at luncheon and golf. The Sterling women gave a good account of themselves, defeating their visitors in a score something like 23 to 3. A number of the best players on the Dixon team were unable to go to Sterling. Despite the fact that they were routed in golf, the Dixonites report a happy day and delightful treatment at the Sterling course. The Dixon players were Mrs. H. U. Bardwell, Mrs. Albin Larsen, Mrs. F. J. Rosebrook, Mrs. A. A. Rowland, Mrs. Lee Dymart, Mrs. Wilson Dymart, Miss Marion Davies, Mrs. Lloyd Davies and Miss Franc Ingraham.
Mrs. Wilson Dymart and Miss Marion Davies made points for the Dixon team.

TAILORED FROCK

The tailored frock of this season is not severe, but has graceful lines such as this one. The surplice front reveals a tiny front of lace, but that is the only trimming. The circular ruffles at the sleeves and caught up in the front make it quite unnecessary. A very fine, supple charmeen is the material.

Entertained for Miss Katherine Hanley

Yesterday Mrs. Oliver Rogers was a hostess at a charming entertainment for Miss Elizabeth Raymond, who in a few days will become the bride of Richard D. Pearsall of Elgin. There were nineteen young guests present at the delightful luncheon at Miss Rogers' home, followed by a happy afternoon at bridge at the home of Mrs. Rogers. Garden flowers were the decorations. There were four tables of bridge.

Mrs. Dwight Chapman was awarded the first prize at bridge and Miss Marion Kilburn won the prize for the second highest score.

Miss Alice Pearsall of Elgin and Mrs. Dana McGraw of Fairbault, Minn., were the out-of-town guests.

Prairieville Social Circle Picnic

Wednesday, members of the Prairieville Social, families and friends, aggregating 150, gathered at Lowell park for the annual picnic of the Circle, and everyone present spent a most enjoyable day. The next meeting will take place in two weeks and will be an afternoon meeting, the place to be given later.

Burke-Gardner Nuptials Tuesday

On Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock at St. Patrick's Catholic church, Reverend Father Foley officiated at a pretty June wedding, the marriage service uniting the lives of Miss Margaret Burke and Frank Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gardner of N. Galena avenue. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burke of 214 College avenue.

The bride and bridegroom were attended by Miss Marie Doran of Sublette and Joseph Villiger of this city.

The bride was beautifully gowned in a frock of sunset colored georgette crepe, with a corsage of bride's roses. Her becoming hat was of the same material as her gown. The maid of honor, Miss Doran, wore a pretty gown of green georgette, with hat in harmony, and a corsage of pink roses.

After the ceremony a three-course wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burke of College avenue, at which time twenty-five guests, relatives of the bridal couple, were entertained. Pink and white peonies were the table decorations.

The bride's traveling costume was a modish suit of tan peridot twill. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner are enjoying a honeymoon at the Dells, Wis. On their return they will make their home with the bride's parents.

Best wishes are extended Mr. and Mrs. Gardner for their future happiness.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were Miss Sarah Dulen, LaSalle; Mrs. Edward Shannon, LaSalle; Mr. and Mrs. John Burke, Jr., Belvidere; Miss Marie Doran, Sublette; Mrs. Jennie Loan, Sublette.

A June wedding of interest to friends in Dixon and vicinity took place recently. The marriage of Adelaide Welty, daughter of C. F. Welty of Walton, Ill., to Walter DeHaven of Chicago, took place June 23rd at Camp, Ill.

Reverend Father O'Brien of St. John's church officiated at the service with nuptial mass at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. W. J. Kirby, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Barry Smith of Chicago, was the bridegroom's attendant.

The music was under the direction of Miss Mary Kirby of Steward, organist. Miss Parizek, of Chicago, being the soloist. Both young ladies were friends and classmates of the bride and bridegroom.

A four-course wedding breakfast with decorations in yellow and white roses, was served to relatives and friends at the Hotel Inman following the ceremony.

After a motor trip through the northern woods Mr. and Mrs. DeHaven will make their home in Minneapolis.

Hosts of friends in Dixon and Walton and vicinity, extend sincere congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. DeHaven.

FABLES ON HEALTH

MENTAL BURDENS

Equanimity is a word that Mr. Mann of Anytown might have had difficulty in defining.

Equanimity is an all too little known word and an all too little practiced condition.

Equanimity means calm, poise, balance—all those things which, if practiced, would be of tremendous help in this nervous, fretful world.

The secret of equanimity, it has been pointed out, rests not so much in repressing fear or worry, but in dropping or ignoring them.

Carrying a mental burden never solved any man's problem. Gaining control of the attention is an important step toward gaining equanimity.

The failure to learn the lesson of control is one of the greatest evils of the time.

"Forget it!" is a good phrase to commit to memory.

Harmon Young People Gave Fine Entertainment

The Young Peoples Social Hour Club of Harmon gave a fine program in the M. E. church there Saturday evening, playing to a crowd that filled the edifice to the entry-way. The program, which consisted almost entirely of vaudeville stunts, was as follows:

"How Do you Do?" (Song composed by Mary Edson)—Eva Swab, Janet Gaskill and Mary Edson.

Pantomime—Mary Smith, Lodine Thompson, George Kofod, Hershel Thompson, Dan Hess and Lawrence Hill.

The Umbrella Men—(Ikey and Denny)—Mr. Moffat and Walter Schmidt.

Too many Mothers-in-Law—Sarah Hess, Albert Kofod, Madeline Hess and Effie Schmidt.

Coon Creek Courtship—Mary and Raymond Edson.

Janet and Eva Swab played two duets between acts. Mrs. Evelyn Kravov sang two solos and Janet Gaskill sang a solo during the changing of the stage. The entire program was fine and was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Kravov, who helped to start the club, trained all the players and they reflected her careful work. During the program Lucille Gaskill and Eva Willstead sold ice cream and candy. The club plans more entertainments in the future.

TO SAVE NIAGARA FALLS.

First aid to nature at Niagara Falls is the aim of engineers who are studying the mighty cataract. Power development projects have been blamed for detracting from the beauty of the Falls by withdrawing a large volume of water. It appears, however, that this natural wonder is self-destructive.

Engineers estimate that 80 percent of the water passing over the combined crest of the American and Canadian Falls is concentrated in the comparatively narrow throat of the Horseshoe Falls. The rock walls over which the water rushes at that particular place are therefore receding faster than the normal rate of six feet a year, while the cutting of the outer edge is correspondingly retarded.
In a very short time, engineers maintain, this will destroy the beauty of contour of that part of the Falls.

To modern engineering this is not a hopeless outlook. They are at work now devising means of forestalling the destructive forces and of maintaining for many years to come the beauty and grandeur that might otherwise be lost.

A miniature working model of the Falls,
built accurately according to careful surveys and airplane maps, has been constructed to help in studying the problem. Just what sort of props or protectors will be devised the layman can not even guess. But engineers have worked enough miracles in recent years to inspire confidence that they can save even Niagara Falls from itself.

WORLD FAMINE COMING?

Backward weather has played havoc with the crops. The government's June 1 report showed that the nation's crops were in the poorest condition they had been on that date for the last dozen years.

Crop failures come. They come periodically.

Early in 1922 Sir William Henry Beveridge, head of the London School of Economics, predicted that the world was approaching a year "destined to repeat something like the experiences of 1315, the year of the worst and most general harvest failure known in European history."

Economists headed by Beveridge had checked back and found that there's a terrible crop failure about every 123 years. The last big one was in 1800. So Beveridge suggested that the next might fall in 1923.

He was wrong. But did he miss it entirely, or just by a few years? Is there danger of a world famine this year or in the next few years ahead?

Crop failures come in years of unfavorable weather, which repeats periodically—the "solar or meteorological cycle" is what the scientists call it.

We've been having freakish weather for a couple of years, of a long-range sort that is dangerous to the food supply.

Years of plenty and lean years come in rotational groups. You recall the seven fat years and the seven lean years in Egypt. If Joseph were alive again, he'd have been buying the farmers' surplus grain and storing it in warehouses for a period of crop failure.

All this "dope" about crop failures, of course, is scientific guesswork, largely. Maybe there's nothing ahead except bumper crops. All of us devoutly hope so.

But the possibility of a big crop failure is worthy serious thought. Our generation hasn't gone through a real crop failure, so it doesn't know what real trouble is.

Nature tends to balance things in the long run. When she gives us too much food over a long stretch of time, she's apt to start the ball rolling the other way.

Give us a crop failure and you wouldn't find farmers complaining about prices being
low. Trouble is, they wouldn't have much to sell. The system gets the farmer, coming and going.

TAXES.

Check-up shows that national, state and local taxes in 1922 cost the American people over 7750 million dollars.

That's over $70 a year for every man, woman and child—$350 for a man and wife with three children.

Uncle Sam gets most of the blame, though the war and its debt is his alibi. A far greater menace is reckless spending by states, counties and cities. The public thinks it needs more public improvements than it can afford. Mortgaging the future by bonds, to dodge immediate taxes is just putting off the fearful day of reckoning.

COTTON.

World leadership in cotton is slipping away from our country. The boll weevil's chiefly to blame.

This year Americans will grow 38,500,000 acres of cotton. Foreign countries have about 28,000,000 acres planted to cotton, an increase of 2,000,000 acres in one year. It is the most important economic shifting now taking place in the world.

JAPS.

Japanese boycott of American-made goods is childishly foolish. For, continued, it might lead to retaliation.

We're Japan's leading export customer.
We buy more from her than she from us.
Last year Japan sold us over 160 million dollars worth of goods more than she bought from us. Already boycotted by China, and risking a retaliatory boycott of her wares in America, the Rising Sun might very easily become a Setting Sun.

GIN.

"They had been drinking synthetic gin,"
is getting to be a familiar expression in connection with most crimes that get the limelight.

Synthetic gin—flavored alcohol, known to the underworld as "white line"—is not a creation of prohibition. For several years before America went dry, the bulk of its gin was faked and labeled in the east.

Rotten liquor—greed of many engaged in the liquor traffic—helped make the country dry.

The liquor industry committed suicide.

JAM.

Traffic congestion costs Manhattan Island,
N. Y., over 182 million dollars a year, it's estimated. Chicago's toll is a third as much.
Other big cities also pay.

The "loss" is mainly loss of personal time and delay of truck and wagon deliveries. To call it a loss is a bit foolish. For every $1 lost by multiplicity of autos, at least $10 is saved by the auto's time and labor-saving services.

TOM SIMS SAYS

A golf ball leaves the club head at about 135 miles an hour, which is about as fast as a golfer leaves the office.

Perhaps time really is money. Anyway, time is all some friends spend.

Even if women do have more sense than men, you never see a man with about a million buttons on his shirt.

As the candidate spreads his bunk so will he lie.

The height of foolishness is on the same level with the depths of despair.

People who think too much of themselves
do not think enough.

Trouble with knocking around the world
is it knocks you around instead.

They do not shake hands at all in China,
and not enough in America.

The biggest things in life are the small things.

Baseball fans blow almost as much as electric fans.

Many a garden plot has ceased to be the land of promise.

Absence of winter makes the heart grow
fonder.

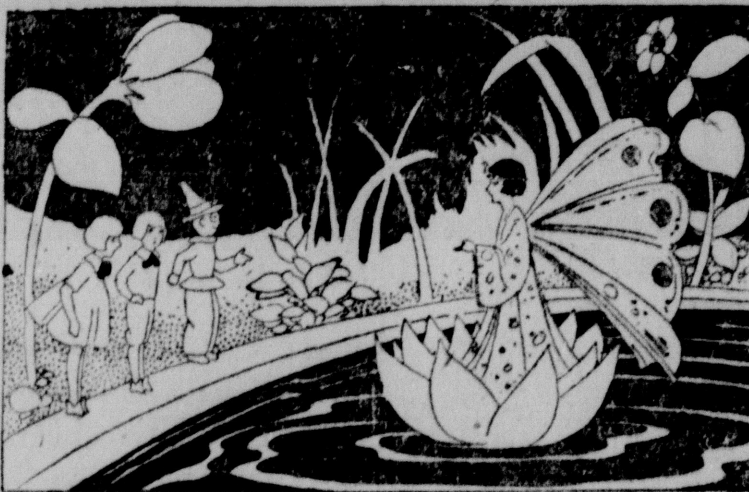

It is hard to sing "Home, Sweet Home" in a rented house.

If you take a fly in and treat her nice she wants you to give a party for all of her friends and relatives.

OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

NO. 16—A TRIP TO EGYPT

"Good evening," said the little fairy in the lotus flower.

When Johnny Jump-Up and the Twins scrambled down the rose vine into the magic garden, the next night,
a new flower had grown there.

It looked like a water lily, and grew like a water lily—in the gold fish pool.

"It's a lotus flower," whispered Johnny Jump-Up, "and the fairy who lives in it is an Egyptian fairy."

"Good evening," said the little fairy in the lotus flower. "I've been waiting for you. You are to go to Egypt tonight and as it is a long distance away and there is so much to see, you had better be starting at once."

She handed three tickets to Johnny Jump-Up, who thanked her very kindly.

Tommy Titmouse hopped up and punched the tickets with his bill.

Nancy and Nick and Johnny Jump-Up got on and away they flew.

They crossed the ocean and a desert
as big as an ocean only with sand instead of water, and soon they came to Egypt.

Tommy Titmouse settled down on a palm tree to rest.

"My, it's hot!" said Nancy.

"Yes, Egypt is a warm country," said Johnny Jump-Up. "While we are resting, I'll tell you a little about it.
Soon we will come to a river. It is called the Nile and it is the longest river in the world. There is no water in Egypt except along the Nile River, so all the people live there. Egypt is thousands of miles long, but only a few miles wide. It is like a long ribbon."

"Come on, I'm rested now," said Tommy Titmouse. "I wonder if we will see our friend, the stork, whom we met in Holland. He said he lived in Egypt sometimes."

"No, because it is still spring in Holland," said Johnny Jump-Up. "He won't come back to Egypt until it gets cold in Holland."

"Why, there is the Nile River now," said Tommy as he flew along. "Do look at those queer pink birds with the long necks wading in the water."

"Those are flamingoes," said
Johnny Jump-Up.

"Oh, and there are some men riding on camels," cried Nick. "They look like a circus."

"People in Egypt use camels instead of horses," explained Johnny Jump-Up, "because they can stand heat better and don't sink into the sand."

"Here are the pyramids," said Johnny Jump-Up. "They were built by the kings of Egypt thousands of years ago. There are no doors or windows or any way to get in or out."

"Where is King Tut's tomb?" asked Nancy.

"Cover there," said Johnny. "But there is nothing much to see but a hole in the ground. The sand has blown over it and covered it all up in three thousand years."

"Oh, look!" shivered Tommy Tit-mouse, as he flew along the river bank. "What are those creatures lying there in the water? They've got eyes like teacups."

"They are crocodiles," said Johnny Jump-Up.

"Well, I've seen enough of Egypt," said Tommy. "Let's go home."

I'm going to close this letter now.
You may expect me out there in about three weeks, possibly four. I'll telegraph you when I'm coming.

I expect to find married life at least range very interesting while I visit the Prescotts, for you know that an old bachelor has little chance to do so unless he has someone who is his intimate friend, as Jack is mine.

I'm wondering who that good looking young man who seems to be hanging on the outskirts of your pictures is. He's been in the last three, and seems to have very little to do except to keep his eyes—and they are very beautiful and wistful eyes—upon you. You might tell him that I'm coming out to try and supplant him in your affections. Until I do, believe me to be

Always one of your great friends,

LOOK OUT FOR ARMY WORM

Army worms have made their appearance in Ogle county this year in large numbers and have done serious damage to crops in many sections according to reports of many farmers.
The worst cases have been found in the east part of the county, according to Farm Adviser, D. E. Warren, who gives the following description of the worm and the method of control.

The army worm may be recognized as a dark green worm about an inch and a half long when mature, having a narrow, white, broken stripe down the middle of the back and two wider yellow stripes edged with white on each side. The insect passes the winter as a partly grown worm, changing to the brown pupal form early in the spring below the surface of the ground. From about the first of April to the first of May it emerges as a fawn colored moth which flies by night and lays its eggs in sheaths of rank growing grasses such as along fences and in rank pastures. In 10 to 20 days the eggs hatch producing the young worms which feed on grasses, grains, corn, etc. doing the damage

which is now reported on many farms.
The worms require 3 or 4 weeks to grow to maturity and do the greatest damage during the last week of their growth, stripping small grain and corn of their leaves and leaving only the bare stem or mid rib. When full grown they return into the ground to the pupal stage and form into moths which lay another crop of eggs.
There may be three broods of this insect in one season.

If the worms usually work into cultivated fields from pastures or meadows or the grass along the fence rows and may be checked before much damage is done to the crops if noticed in time. The most successful control is by the use of poison bait which may be scattered in areas infested with the young worms. The poison consists of 25 lbs. bran, 1 1/2 lbs. paris green, 2 quarts molasses, 1/4 dozen oranges, water to moisten. Mix the paris green with the bran while dry. Then mix the molasses and juice of the oranges with about 3 gal. of water.

Add the liquid to the dry mixture and mix thoroughly adding more water if necessary to make the bait moist but not too wet. The best time to use the bait is late in the afternoon before the worms leave their shelter from the warm sun and are ready to start feeding.

An additional method of control is to plow a furrow around an infected area and drag a log or other object back and forth in the furrow to grind the worms into the dust. Crude oil in the furrow will also be a help.

LEE CO. FARM
BUREAU NOTESARMY WORMS ARE WREAKING HAVOC ON MANY FARMS.

As was announced last week by the Lee County Farm Bureau, army worms have appeared in large numbers in many places in the county.

In many instances whole fields of timothy, bluegrass, corn, wheat, rye and in a few instances oats have been entirely riddled by the army worms.
Definite instructions were mailed from the Farm Bureau office last week to all members of the Farm Bureau in Lee County urging them to investigate their fields at once, and take immediate steps toward controlling any outbreaks. In many instances farmers have neglected necessary precaution, and this only added to the difficulty of controlling the worms by poisoning or by means of furrows after the worms have started to move from one field to another. Where definite instructions are followed control measures are very satisfactory. Delay always means disappointment, and mistakes or carelessness means serious loss.

Quick Action Needed.

In every instance where outbreaks are known to exist farmers are urged to take immediate action without a single day's delay and use the approved methods of control. The Farm Bureau Office at Amboy will be glad to furnish copies of instructions or furnish information by phone to any farmer who has outbreaks of army worms.

WEDDINGS OF TWO ROCHELLE PEOPLE FEATURE OF NEWS

Letter from Hustling Ogle Co. City Full of Real Interest.

Rochelle.—Mr. Margaret Parker, Esmond, has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Lola Margaret, to Leon Countryman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Countryman, Rochelle. The nuptials will be solemnized Saturday afternoon, June 28, at 1:30 o'clock at the bride's home.

Mr. Countryman is associated with his brother-in-law, J. Brooks Parker, in the garage business at Lee, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Steward, 117 Whitney avenue, Joliet, Illinois, announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Mary J., to Raymond A. Phelps of Rochelle, Thursday, June 19, at 6:00 p. m.

Dr. Hastings, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Joliet read the service in the presence of forty guests. The young people were unattended. A niece of the bride scattered rose petals in the path of the bride party which passed through an aisle of ribbons to the altar. Roses and garden flowers were used in decorating the home. Nuptial music was furnished by a harpist, cellist and violinist.

Following the ceremony a three-course dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Phelps left by motor on a two weeks' honeymoon trip to Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin.

The bride is a graduate of Joliet high school in the class of 1920 and attended the Chicago Normal school for two years, where she affiliated with the Phi Delta Psi sorority.

Mr. Phelps is a graduate of Beloit College with the class of 1920 and is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi and Sigma Delta Chi fraternities.

Mr. and Mrs. Phelps will reside in Chicago, where Mr. Phelps is one of the advertising managers for Albert Pick & Co., hotel equipment dealers and outfitters.

Those from Rochelle attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Phelps and daughter, Frances, and son, John; Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Craft, John C. Craft and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Guest.

Marjorie Countryman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton A. Countryman, of Ames, Iowa, and a granddaughter of Mrs. Jennie E. Countryman of this city, was awarded the cup for the best student in the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades in the Ames schools, upon the closing of school. The word "best" means in scholarship, sportsmanship, conduct, disposition and activity. Marjorie is a student in the fifth grade. If she gets her name on the cup two more times she will retain the loving cup for her own.

Miss Lucille Kelley and Mrs. Russell Hamaker attended a reunion at Jennings Seminary at Aurora, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Noble and son of Rockford spent the week end with Rochelle friends.

Miss Mary Maley has been enjoying a weeks' vacation from stenographic duties in the purchase department of the Geo. D. Whitcomb Co., and Mrs. Minnie Rouse has been substituting for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Atwater left Thursday morning for Berea, Kentucky. Mr. Atwater's Buick touring car was wrecked Tuesday night when Chicago men hurrying to an Aurora fight collided with the Wheaton tourists. Mr. and Mrs. Atwater took the train for Rochelle and pressed Mrs. Alice Atwater's Ford sedan into service to continue their journey. Mr. Atwater is enjoying his annual vacation from duties in the Gary-Wheaton bank.

Arthur T. Guest spent the week-end attending the commencement at Beloit college, including the inauguration of President Maurer, his fraternity banquet at the Phi Kappa Psi house, and class reunion. Others from this vicinity attending included Paul Charters of Ashton and Paul W. Rosenberg of Chicago.

The city of Rochelle has just placed an order for the very latest model Pumper Fire Truck. Delivery is to be made about the first of September. This new machine will be the last word in fire fighting equipment and will place the city on a par or better for fire size in the state.

The ten millionth Ford car assembled at the Highland Park plant of the Ford Motor Company in Detroit on June 4th, will pass through Rochelle over the Lincoln Highway on its way to San Francisco. The start was made from Times Square in New York at 10:00 o'clock, Monday morning, June 10th.

Mrs. W. R. McLean left Wednesday morning for Portage, Wisconsin, to spend two weeks visiting her mother.

George E. Stocking is having 3,000 sweet potato plants set on a plot of his acreage just west of his asparagus field.

The Rochelle Post Office has done a remarkable business the past year. According to the records just compiled, the increase in money orders alone over the previous year amounted to $15,228.58. The increase in the sale of stamps, etc., amounts to about $7,000.00 more.

The annual Sunday School picnic of the First Presbyterian church will be held in Clark's Grove northwest of Rochelle, Thursday. It is the aim of the Sunday School officers to make the event a church and congregational as well as a Sunday School picnic. All Sunday School scholars are requested to meet at the church at 10:00 a. m. Those attending are requested to bring sandwiches for themselves, one dish to pass, a knife, fork, spoon, cup and plate. Conveyances will be provided to take the company to the grove. Members of the Sunday School or congregation who cannot leave with the crowd should arrange to come some time during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. George N. Griley are on an automobile trip through Iowa. They called on Miss Abrams, a high school teacher, at State Center recently.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Taylor and son, Clarence, returned from California, where they have been spending the winter. Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rankin and daughter, Ruth, motored to Clinton, Iowa, to greet them and escort the party to Rochelle.

Mrs. Roland Conry and daughter, Margaret, and son, Landon, and Miss Louise Pierce spent the past week in LaPorte, Ind.

ADVICE TO THE JUNE GRADUATE

BY A. H. BOWEN
PRESIDENT, PACIFIC-ORIENT COMPANY

Great Field Offered Qualified Graduates in Expanding Import and Export Business

One selecting the import and export business should start as early as possible and in the sample room or as office boy. These, the bottom rungs of the ladder, are the proper places to "break in."

High school education is ample. Experience far outweighs lack of a college diploma.

Patience, diligence, perseverance, good address, and, above all, strong initiative are requisites for success.

In about a year the beginner should have raised himself from a $50-a-month capacity to a $75 or $100-a-month salary. After that returns are as varied as is individual ability. A person of average attainments can earn between $200 and $300 a month within five years.

At the end of 20 years, or sooner, the man should be a partner, or in business for himself. The financial returns then depend entirely upon the extent of the business and the carefulness of its conduct.

With phenomenal success the profit may be a quarter of a million if the business has been conservative, or may run into seven figures if the business policy is speculative and luck has held consistently.

Intensive import and export business is somewhat young in this country and should expand considerably within the next 25 years, as the expansion possibilities are limitless.

The field is crowded at present, both as to concerns and individuals, and entry is difficult.

But for one with proper qualifications, it is to be highly recommended if entry is possible. Selection of the right firm and display of proper initiative will bring keen enjoyment in the work and big financial remuneration, limited only by a man's own limitations.

Control of Workers' Mine Owners' Problem

St. Louis, Mo., June 25.—The control of employees is rapidly becoming the greatest problem of the coal mining industry. R. D. Brown of Harrisburg, Blinola, an operator, told the Mid-West Coal Mining Safety Conference, which opened here today.

"The mining industry has been accused by the public of being the poorest managed of all great industries," Brown said. "This criticism is partially warranted, due to the intricate nature of the problems peculiar to the industry, but often such criticism is not based on accurate facts." Blinola is largely responsible for mine accidents, he said. "The three points of attack in eliminating such accidents, lie in proper equipment, proper inspection and an efficient and honest management."

"Inspection of hauling equipment prior to each day's work in the case of one particular coal company saved more in decreased maintenance along than the labor cost of inspection," Brown declared.

Investigate Explosion Which Killed Five Men

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, June 25.—Authorities today continued investigations of the explosion aboard the Standard Oil Company freighter Egremont Castle, at a Brooklyn wharf yesterday, in which five men were reported missing and six others perhaps fatally injured. The missing men, one of whom was Charles Keller, an inspector for the Standard Oil Company, are thought to have been burned to death or drowned in the flooded hold of the ship.

The Egremont Castle was beached at Gowanus Flats. It is estimated that the damage will exceed $300,000. Origin of the explosion on the ship, which was loaded with 250,000 gallons of naphtha, kerosene and gasoline bound for the far east is a mystery.

Several wild cats have been captured recently in Scotland.

SMITH PLACED IN NOMINATION BY F. ROOSEVELT

Named Sen. Underwood

The demand of Senator Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama at the Democratic national convention, condemn by name, the political activities of the Ku Klux Klan was voiced to the convention Wednesday by Henry Johnston of Alabama, as the keynote of his speech placing Mr. Underwood's name before the convention for the presidential nomination.

"No bare reference to the constitution or the bill of rights actually mentioned in the Klan oath, is adequate in this connection," Mr. Johnston declared. "The bills of rights are limitations only upon the state and federal governments and not upon private conspiracy. That is why the candidate of my people has insisted upon plain words.

"The question before this party, is whether secret organizations shall be given powers immune from the bill of rights and superior to those delegated to the elected representatives of the people.

"Above all, does the candidate we represent condemn the massed action of secret political orders in furtherance of any objective which is plainly contrary to the spirit of the constitution?

"In order to express squarely his opinion on this grave question, I have, at his request, introduced a resolution reciting the established position of our party on that precise issue, referring to the resolution of 1856 and concluding with this resolving clause: 'Resolved: That we do reaffirm the principles set forth in the said resolution of the democratic platform of 1856 and condemn as un-American and un-democratic political action by secret or quasi secret organizations in furtherance of any political objective whatsoever; and in particular do we condemn such action for the purpose of prescribing the political rights and privileges of citizens of the United States, as is now proposed, practiced and publicly acknowledged by the organizations known as the Ku Klux Klan, and as may now or hereafter be proposed or practiced by any organization whatsoever.'

Senator Underwood, Mr. Johnston said, had no word to say against those who joined any order, secret or otherwise, organized for lawful purpose or to advocate openly any principle within the scope of legitimate public discussion.

"What he does condemn is the participation in politics by any secret organization whatsoever," the speaker continued. "He believes that such action intimidates public officials and encourages political or oath-bound pledges contrary to public policy."

At another point, Mr. Johnston said the outstanding characteristic of the Democratic party was that it stood for the protection of human rights by protecting public officials "against organized oppression and intimidation." Senator Underwood had requested, he said, that his position be made plain beyond misunderstanding by the delegates on this grave issue, and added:

"He believes that unless the issue is met with candor and dignity in this campaign you will not only invite the disintegration of this party but will take a backward step so wholly inconsistent with the basis of a modern liberal government as to be too unthinkable for the democratic party to accept or condone."

The speaker described Senator Underwood as one whose "only employer for more than a quarter of a century last past has been the people of the United States."

"If a man ever lived in modern times apart from embarrassing or entangling associations or environment, it is the man we now propose," Mr. Johnston declared. "If any citizen of concern is found guilty of offense against the federal laws involving moral turpitude there is no reason, personal, professional or otherwise, why his administration should not press the prosecution to the point of penal servitude."

"The indispensable requisite of your choice is that it fall one a man of such exalted character that neither Wall Street nor Main Street, boulevard or alley, neither partisan journal nor wayside assassin dare impeach his character without earning immediate derision; and such a man is this democrat whom we place in nomination."

Taking up in his openly remarks the need that the democratic convention nominate a man in "this crisis in public morals to restore to the people deserved confidence in their public concerns," Mr. Johnston continued:

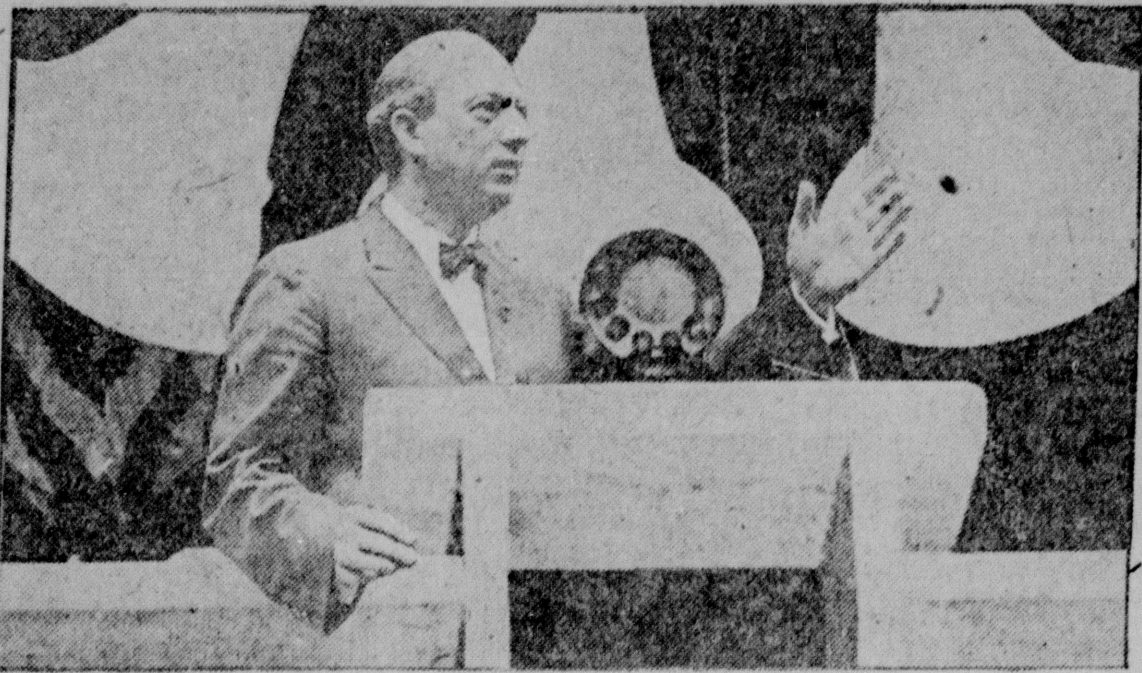

"The republican party organization misunderstood its victory in 1920, which was nothing more than the instinctive reaction of the people against the administration immediately responsible for war taxes and for the unavoidable exercise of abnormal federal powers incident to war.

"Its officials came into power in 1921, exultant, over confident and in a state of suspended morals as a result of that victory, and their party organization promptly lost its conscience and its capacity to analyze men and motives or to reconcile in the public interests its internal conflicts over the use of the powers of government. As a result of the condition at Cleveland the nation has discovered the complete break down of republican moral and the loss of its courage.

"The corruption in the administration of Grant resulted in what we democrats know to have been the rejection of his party by the Democratic forces under Tilden. The high character of General Grant did not stay that result; nor will the personal integrity of Coolidge and Dawes stay a like result today.

"The republican machine must stand aside for the people of this country will not allow their government to be betrayed with impunity. And remember, that the scandals of the present regime are not even yet plumbed or charted in depth and extent and are neither punished nor repented."

McAdoo Was Second

William G. McAdoo was placed in nomination by former Senator James D. Phelan, of California, with the declaration that he is the "natural leader of progressive thought and achievement."

"This year demands the return of triumphant Democracy," said Mr. Phelan. "The progressives of the nation look to the Democratic party for their leader. Shall we give him to them? There is room in America for but one reactionary party, and the Republicans have preempted that field. The party's chance of success depends upon its choice for candidate for the presidency of this man."

Tracing McAdoo's career both in the government service and in private life, Phelan declared that the "vast problems of the continent are his familiar themes; the prosperity of farm and forest and mine, factors of natural growth and strength and transportation and irrigation, these are not strange subjects, born of restricted environment and narrow outlook."

"In the broadness of his vision, his sympathetic understanding, his aggressive personality, his burning patriotism, he is an ideal American," continued the speaker. "And so the country will accept him."

"The vast machinery of the government rumbles discordantly along the road; the parts do not fit; the crew recalcitrant and rebellious and the chosen chief engineer has been succeeded by the accident of an accident."

"Where should the people in all prudent turn? Continue the inexperienced and inept, or take a trained and tried chief who can at once step into the cab and give command? We want a man who knows where he is going, and who is going where the people want him to go—capable, progressive, confident of his power and alert and eager to serve."

While Mr. McAdoo was secretary of treasury, the convention was told, he "cleansed it of the foul growth of favoritism and repelled the insidious attacks of the powerful, made it the repository of the people's hopes and the instrumentality of sound finance, the safeguard of honest business and industrial prosperity."

"We honor President Wilson who left against heritage of character and achievement to the democracy," continued Mr. Phelan. "But we shall not forget the toll he paid, the inspirer of ideas and the deer of things, the great secretary of the treasury in the most exacting and soul-testing administration since Lincoln's."

Assenting that Mr. McAdoo understands the farmer's problems "far better than any aspirant for the presidency—either Democrat or Republican," Mr. Phelan added:

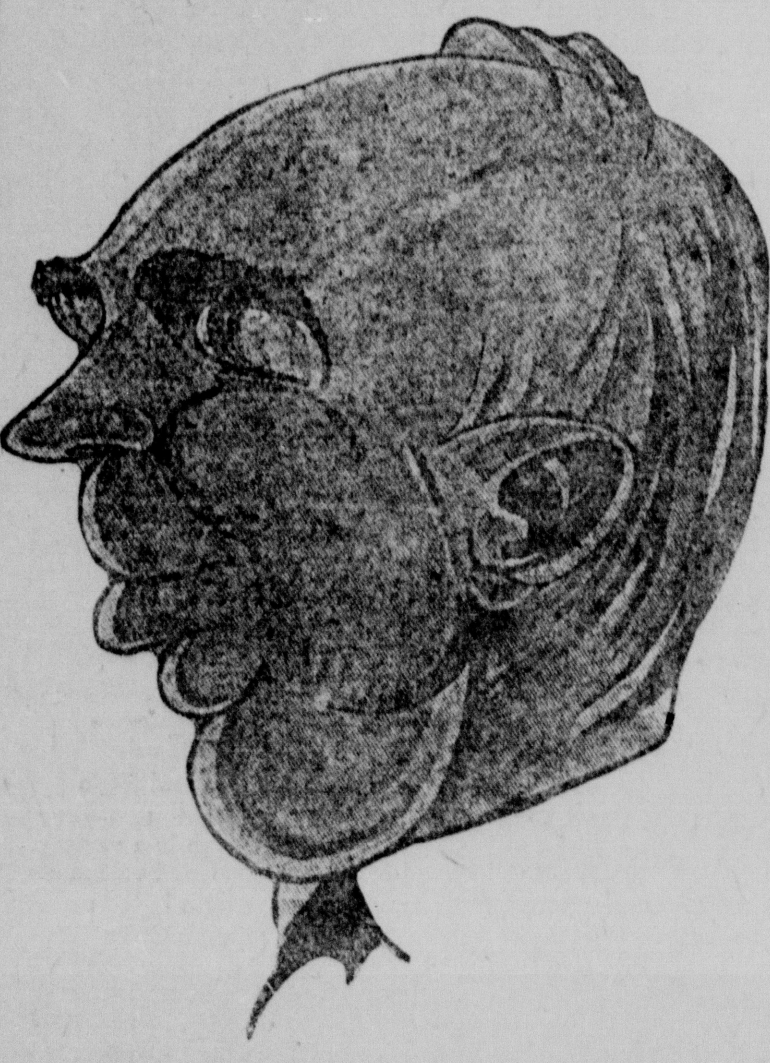

"From every side today come urgent demands for adequate solution of agricultural problems. What man is better equipped to solve them than this man, who was raised on a farm, who during his long administration of the treasury department, of the farm loan bureau and of the railroads came into daily contact with farming problems of every description, and who had then and has now the vision to see the remedy and the courage to effect it?"

As for Mr. McAdoo's administration of the railroads, Mr. Phelan had this to say:

"The workers knew his sentiments toward labor. He gave them the eight hour rule and overtime and otherwise ameliorated their condition. Assuming complete control, he brought order out of chaos, relieved congestion, opened ports and loyally supported by his men, successfully moved to tide-water—a vital operation—the tied-up labor he yet remembered always the interest of the public. It is a striking fact that the total increase in the wages of railroad employees made in 1918 by McAdoo were approximately $608,000,000 while his successor for their increased these wages $394,000,000 making the total of all increases under federal control $1,002,000,000."

"When on March 1, 1920, the railroads were restored to private control under the Esch-Cummins Act, which established the U. S. Labor Board over wages and working conditions, hearings were held and the labor board granted a further increase of $620,000,000 in addition to

Brennan Has a Good Healthy Laugh at Gonzalez Caricature

Leo E. Brennan

By Gonzalez.

Smith Headquarters, Waldorf-Astoria.—George E. Brennan, political boss tugging at the Al Smith chariot, is sitting for a sketch. He converses and laughs very often. "There is bound to be humor in a man who is fat. I catch him when he laughs. There is character in the Brennan laugh. It's a ripping subject for caricature."

The photographers have taken Brennan in 17 different attitudes and as he walks out he is stopped at least the total increases made during federal control. McAdoo dealt fairly with labor a square deal, nothing more."

"Today another great problem which demand solution is the lowering of freight rates and improvement of railroad regulation. What man is better equipped for this job than the man who for the entire war period operated all the railroads of the country?"

As one of eight children, Mr. McAdoo, the delegates were told, has "known privation and has practiced self-denial; understands the problems of the poor; has the fiber of fortitude; and never quits."

"He is deeply grounded in American principles, the constitution and the law. He opposes any discrimination on account of religious belief. It is repugnant to his sterling Americanism."

"America was the protest of the free men of the world against the religious bigotry and persecutions of the past; and it is a matter of constitutional principle and precept to respect and protect the freedom of thought and speech—of religion, of press, of assembly."

McAdoo stands for the supremacy of the law and for the enforcement of the law—the solemn duty of the executive. The treaty making power and the Congress, under the constitution and Bill of Rights, prescribe the law and that is the only law the president knows. It is the guide for his action and the ready weapon of the republic for its defense against the assaults of the ignorant or the intolerant."

Presented Sen. Robinson

The candidacy of Senator Joseph T. Robinson for the presidential nomination of the democratic party was launched before the national convention by C. H. Brown, former governor of Arkansas, who endorsed him as "a proven leader, who can unite all factions of our party, heal all wounds; a twentieth century crusader for the immortal principles of democracy and Americanism."

"Arkansas," he said, "offers to the nation her most distinguished and brilliant son."

"A youth of adversity, a man of virtue and honesty, this distinguished native son of Arkansas has reached one of the highest places within the gift of our party."

"In the stress of the World War he stood firm in his support of the constructive and progressive policies of our immortal leader, Woodrow Wilson."

"This great American and tribune of the rights of the common people enjoys the respect, love and admiration of the American people. Since he reached his majority 30 years ago, he has taken an active part in every presidential campaign; it is a significant fact that in every doubtful state in which he spoke during the last national campaign at least one democratic United States senator and several democratic congressmen were elected."

"I have the honor of presenting to this convention a great American who combines all the qualities of leadership, a proven leader who can unite all factions of our party, heal all party wounds; a twentieth century crusader for the immortal principles of democracy and Americanism, Senator Joseph T. Robinson."

Deny Deported Delay in Work on New Plant

Rumors to the effect that the half million dollar hydro plant to be built by the Illinois Northern Utilities Company, replacing the present station, had been held up indefinitely because of certain questions which would have to be presented to a congressional body, were stoutly denied by Vice President E. D. Alexander of the company, today.

It was rumored that a permit from congress would be necessary before construction could proceed, but Mr. Alexander stated to The Telegraph that there was no foundation for such a report. The Utilities Company have certain matters before the state waterways commission, the vice president said, that are awaiting final action, but these in no way will hinder the progress of the work.

A number of farmers in his locality are being annoyed by the army worm. A bulletin was issued last week by County Soil Advisor, L. S. Griffith advising the farmers as to means of checking and getting rid of the pest. The worm which is from one to two inches long has appeared in very large numbers in some of the fields and the farmers are plowing furrows and covering the fields with a poison mash in an effort to kill the worms. W. H. Carnahan, L. H. Lutz, H. L. Rhoads, Lefe Carnahan and others have already reported their crops are being damaged.

Compton is to have a four-day chautauqua July 24-27. The program as announced promises to be one of unusual high class. The entertainment is furnished by the Toledo Chautauqua System and will be given in a large tent with comfortable seats and well lighted. This will no doubt be a constructive force in the community as well as entertaining.

M'DONOUGH CO. HAD ITS WORST STORM LAST EVE

Only One Wire to Macomb; Details are Very Meagre.

Galesburg, Ill., June 25.—Over the only telephone wire working between here and Macomb this morning it is learned that McDonough county at 7 o'clock last night suffered its most destructive wind and electric storm in history. Macomb is without electric power today and efforts are being made to restore telephone service by use of storage batteries.

The fate of Table Grove and Adair, two towns northeast of Macomb, is still unknown. People who drove out of Macomb for a distance following the storm report they could see at least a dozen fires in the country caused by lightning, but could not ascertain whether they were houses or barns.

Several fires are reported in the vicinity of Bushnell, one a barn belonging to a man named Hudson in which one horse burned. Several buildings are reported blown down between Macomb and Bushnell.

In the Cotton Wood neighborhood, ten miles northeast of Macomb several fires are reported.

At La Harpe a cattle barn belonging to C. K. Todd, burned but no cattle perished. At Bardolph, a large garage was unroofed. Trees and telephone poles through the whole county are down. The storm came from the west. Crooked Creek is out of its bank. The storm is thought to have extended southwest nearly as far as Quincy.

No telephone connection could be had with Bushnell this forenoon.

Hull Too Kindly for Dictator, Says Gonzalez; Gives 2 Minutes

(Telegraph Special Service)

BY GONZALEZ

National Democratic Committee Headquarters, Waldorf-Astoria—Cordell Hull, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, is a busy man. His assistant says I can have two minutes. Another "swordman of the pen" is with me.

We sit down and slash away on a very interesting face with a spark of kindness. This man is not a typical dictator.

Committeemen come in and out. Special envoys representing big groups are announced. No one can have any fraction of my two minutes. I squint my eyes. I pucker my mouth and make grimaces similar to the characteristic expression on the face of my subject. I have two minutes. I cannot afford to miss. I accentuate his eyes and give him a bigger ear than he has. No limitations on caricature. That's the beauty of it. Two minutes. I am done. I get Hull's indistinct signature. The assistant calls time and my companion goes out with an unfinished sketch.

We cannot sleep during this convention. Action's the word!

MAYOR STEPHAN RESIGNS POST AT FREEPORT MON.

Ill Health Caused Him Hand His Resignation to Council.

Freeport, June 24.—Mayor Al. N. Stephan last night tendered his resignation to the city council. Declaring that his health has become seriously impaired, Stephan asked that he be relieved of the cares of office as soon as possible. He intimated that if the council thought it advisable that he serve out the remaining ten months of his term he would do so, although it was his wish that the resignation be accepted.

Allegedly urged the mayor to reconsider, but he apparently had made up his mind to relinquish the office. Finally the mayor agreed to appoint a committee of three to consider the matter and report back at the next meeting of the council.

Serving Second Term

Stephan is now serving his second term as mayor of Freeport. Recently he sold out his Ford automobile business to the Leitcher Motor company, headed by Louis Leitcher, a former Rockford man. He was a candidate for nomination for member of the legislature on the Republican ticket at the April primaries, but was defeated.

Stephan, one of the youngest, if not the very youngest men who ever served the city of Freeport as mayor, has had a spectacular career, rising from comparative obscurity to prominence in business life and politics.

He began life as a mechanic in a local factory, finally getting into the automobile game in which he amassed a fortune. Small of stature, the mayor makes up in courage what he lacks in size physically.

An accident of his early career as mayor recalled today. Having received anonymous letters threatening him with rough handling if he dared set foot in East Freeport at night, the mayor promptly accepted the challenge and, alone, patrolled the east side's most unfrequented streets for several nights, but was not molested.

Injunction Against Oil Companies Asked

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, June 25.—Fifty or more of the principal oil companies of the United States were attacked in anti-trust proceedings instituted by the government today in the federal court at Chicago.

Attorney General Stone asked an injunction to restrain the companies from further violations of the Sherman Act, which he charged against them. The complaint charged a combination and conspiracy in restraint of trade and commerce among the several states and with foreign nations in gasoline, kerosene and other hydro carbon products or generally all petroleum derivatives.

Nearly all of the important companies, including all of the Standard companies were cited. The attorney general charged them with having combined to control the production of gasoline by pooling of assorted patent rights in violation of the Anti-Trust Act, naming as the primary defendants the Standard Oil Companies of Indiana and New Jersey and the Standard Development Company, the Texas Company and the Gasoline Products Company.

talked about him and they called him the kissing champion in his day. Why man, you are sketching one of the most talked of 'kissers' of his lifetime."

I could see that my knowledge of history was at fault. I finished the sketch and the famous kisser gave me his autograph. Well, here was a man whom I would not like to have missed. All the historical background, I'll that.

I put up my sketch pad. Turning back I saw one of those blue-eyed flappers that somehow cling to the unofficial end of the Convention. She was smiling and wrinkling a small nose, asked: "I wonder if that bird you just sketched ever heard of Valentin? or the last row in a movie house?"

PLATFORM DRAFT IN HANDS OF SUB- COMMITTEE TODAY

Hearings Were Held During Night; Fight on Floor Seems Sure.

New York, June 25.—Actual drafting of the party's declaration of principles today was in the hands of a sub-committee appointed after the platform committee of the democratic national convention had completed a lengthy hearing.

Declarations on foreign relations, farm relief, prohibition and the Ku Klux Klan formed the most difficult problems confronting the sub-committee under the chairmanship of Homer S. Cummings, of Connecticut. Members of the drafting committee—William Jennings Bryan, Florida; William H. O'Brien, Indiana; William A. Ayres, Kansas; Senator David I. Walsh, Massachusetts; Former Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Nebraska; Senator Key Pittman, Nevada; Newman D. Baker, Ohio; Senator Robert L. Owen, Oklahoma, and Representative Louis J. Garrett, Tennessee—were optimistic.

Hearing Far Into Night

The hearing of the full committee, begun shortly after adjournment of the convention yesterday, continued until after 1 o'clock this morning, with most of the oratory centering about the League of Nations and prohibition.

The committee was warned by Representative Harry B. Hawes, Missouri, and Julius Altcheie, Colorado, that the fight for a specific denunciation of the Ku Klux Klan would be carried to the convention floor if the name of the order should be left out of the "civil and religious liberty" plank by the platform drafters. Committee members from Massachusetts, Ohio, Minnesota and Wisconsin also went on record as urging mention of the Klan. No voice was raised against the proposal.

Women Show Interest

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, national committeewoman from New York, submitted a report on behalf of the women members which had been appointed to consider suggestions from women's organizations. She listed as the subjects in which women had displayed especial interest, conservation, the League of Nations, the world court, home economics co-operation by the federal government, tariff reduction, establishment of a department of education, protection of the rights of Indians, civil service reform, equal rights, public and child welfare, social hygiene, prison reform, protection of women in industry and law enforcement.

Other suggestions advanced during the hearing included a plank proposing that campaign contributions and expenditures, a declaration for Philippine independence and pledges having to do with increased pay for postal workers, steps to combat the traffic in narcotic drugs at home and abroad and suffrage for the District of Columbia.

For instance, vibration subdued to the vanishing point; revolutionary riding and driving results; main bearings rarely if ever replaced; 18,000 miles from a set of tires, and so on.

Maxwell of today is more than the good Maxwell—it has been developed to a plane of superiority far above and beyond the dead level of previous four-cylinder possibilities.

IN HOT BATTLESWhite Sox Take Couple
from Cleveland; Cubs
Drop Hard Contest.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Both New York teams lost yesterday in a pair of seven inning games which were stopped by rain, the Yankees dropping into a third place tie with Boston and the Giants winning streak being stopped by the Brooklyn Robins. The Giants tied the score in the beginning of the eighth, when the rain stopped the game, the score reverting to the previous inning. The Yankees were trimmed, 3-2 by Washington, which strengthened the Senator's hold on first place. The Giants lost by the same score to the Robins. Babe Ruth knocked his 18th homer of the season.

Detroit moved into second place by defeating St. Louis. The score again was 3-2.

Cleveland and Chicago changed positions when the White Sox won a double header, 2-1 and 8-1, and moved into sixth place.

The Phillies and the Braves split a double header, the Philadelphia team winning the first, a ten inning battle, 9-8, and losing the second, 4-1. Durocher scored a homer in both games, while Henline and Harper went the circuit in the first encounter.

Red Sox Finally Win

The Red Sox defeated the Athletics, 4-3, when Ike Boone, pinch hitting for Quinn in the ninth with two out and the score tied, pounded out a single which scored Todd with the winning run and elevated the Red Sox into their tie for third place with the Yanks.

The Pirates and Cubs staged a fourteen inning conflict in Pittsburgh which ended with the home team on top, 8-7. Emil Yde, Oklahoma City southpaw, hit a double in the ninth with two out, which sent the game into extra innings, and his triple in the 14th with two Pirates on base, won the game.

The White Sox and Cleveland games were full of thrills and unique plays yesterday. Hopper, in the second game, scored three runs without making a hit, being walked three times and hit once by a pitched ball.

Pitcher Mays of Cincinnati won his own game from the Cardinals, with a double in the ninth, scoring an other double by Daubert for a 2-1 count. The Cardinals won the first, 3-2.

SPOON AND IRON

I group these two clubs together. My idea is to convince golfers that just because the head of one club is iron and the other is wood is no reason why they should be played differently. If the reading of this does nothing more than bring this idea forcibly home to you it will have accomplished much. As a matter of fact, I play these two clubs the same in every respect. Then, you may ask, "Why do I carry both clubs?" My answer is that I don't. I am obliged to describe my method of play, however, because most golfers do play both clubs.

This writing has to do with all clubs supposed to get distance less than a brassie and more than a midiron shot. Therefore, if you use a club by another name than I describe, such as the cleek and others, this instruction will apply equally. The spoon and driving iron are the clubs which are used least of all, especially if you play 80 or under. As I carry only a spoon, my instructions will be for the uses of that club in the play of the shots demanded for both.

I grip either of these two clubs about the middle of the leather and a little lower down if the clubhead is light. The grip is the finger one and never in the palms. My thumbs are down the shaft, but only a very narrow inner section of them resting upon it. The hands should be as one, so close together so that they cannot work against each other. Finger grip should be confidently firm, but not tight. The club balancing easily as if the clubhead hung heavily, straight down from the fingers. Do not be so tight in the fingers, nor so loose that the clubhead will turn when it hits the sod or ball. Such a result would be disastrous. Let your grip be firm but not tense and the body and arms relaxed. These clubs should feel smooth and rhythmical in the fingers. The clubhead should feel as if it were a weight on the end of the shaft.

I stand with my toes nearly on a straight line. This is approximate, of course, for if you get a very uneven lie you should not hesitate to adjust your stance to it. The toes should be turned out, not in, and the left a little more than the right so that you can get a little better pivot and purchase. The feet should be far enough apart to give a feeling of firmness and solidity and in the wind there should be a rather wide stance. If you open your stance too much, you are apt to get your right shoulder in the way of the stroke, and this is bad. Remember that both heels should be on the ground, especially the right when the stroke begins. You should be very careful to stand in the position which will give you the very best direction, and I believe that to be the one in which you feel the feet in a straight line. Avoid working around unconsciously to a too open stance; it is better to tend to one more nearly square.

Helen Wills is Nearer
Title Match with Lenglen

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Wimbledon, Eng., June 26.—Having raised herself another rung on the Wimbledon ladder through her defeat of Miss Driessfeld, of England yesterday, Helen Wills today found herself appreciably nearer her goal, a finals match against Suzanne Lenglen, five times world's champion.

Helen, yesterday, continued the strong play which marked her first victory in the present tournament.

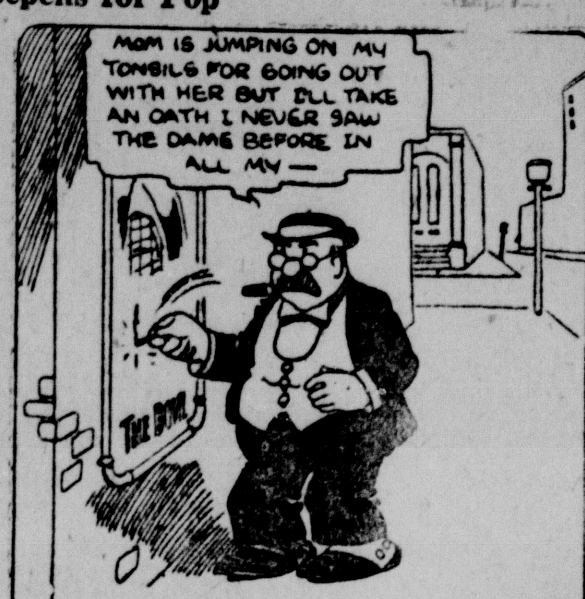

Whether the powerful stroking of the American girl can prevail against the nimbleness and dash of the fiery Lenglen is a moot question, as the French star is at the top of her game.

A SERENADE

Ah! County Guy, the hour is nigh,
 The sun has left the lea,
 The orange-flower perfumes the bowers,
 The breeze is on the sea.
 The lark, his lay who trill'd all day,
 Sits hush'd his partner nigh;
 Breeze, bird, and flower, confess the hour,
 But where is County Guy?

The Village maid steals through the shade,
 Her shepherd's suit to bear;
 To beauty shy, by lattice high,
 Sings high-born cavalier.
 The star of Love, all stars above,
 Now reigns o'er earth and sky,
 And high and low the influence know,
 But where is County Guy?

Sports Of All Sorts

Darksome at their best and dismal at their worst, men's clothes have need of every touch of color that can be borrowed to give them spirit and sparkle. As town dress is traditionally stilted and stodgy, it is the sporting kit to which one must turn for the vivid and picturesque. In the open, the gayest of colors do not look amiss. The blue of the sky, the green of the turf, the purple of the hills and the crimson and orange of the sunset form the true background for those brilliant colors which have latterly vaulted into vogue.

The pursuit of the sport bespeaks youth and sunshine and "Up-With-The-Lark" and "Glad-I'm-Alive!" This is reflected in the dress of the modern sportsman; in his light suits, check-board stockings; blazer-striped caps; strikingly striped sweater jackets; bright-hued scarfs and caps showing the boldest of plaids which, a few years ago, would have been laughed off the links.

When sport was in its knickerbockers in this country, we gave but casual notice to the details of our field turnout. Any old thing, or even anything old, would serve. Today, one finds sportsmen paying the most circumstantial heed to their suits, boots and hats, differentiating punctiliously between this and that purpose and pastime.

The sketch pictures some of the smarter details of current sporting dress, including the correctly proportioned cap; the long-pointed soft collar; the spotted foulard scarf and the outline of the V-neck sweater, often striped in a color gayly contrasting from the ground. To be sure, a soft straw, such as the Panama or Leghorn, or one of the new light-colored featherweight felt hats may be substituted for the cap.

The thing to be mindful of in one's field kit is that every article of dress should follow some well-defined color theme, be it green, brown, gray, Lovat and the like. This does not mean sticking monotonously to a single color, but, rather, carrying a glint of the same color consistently through suit, sweater, stockings, caps, scarf, shirt and belt. To accompany light-colored linen knickers, belts of the same material are procurable. To wear with white flannel trousers, the belts are of white webbing finished with tan leather trimmings.

CONCERT AT ZOO

Los Angeles—Tigers will sleep during a waltz lions will laugh when they listen to a saxophone, baboons will dance to a jazz tune number, experiment has shown. Psychologists and students from several southern California universities and colleges invaded a motion picture zoo here with an orchestra and carried on various experiments.

Egypt has planted about 10 per cent more cotton this year than last, a total of 1,500,000 acres.

New Treatment for Varicose Veins and Ulcers

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength), at any pharmacist and start to reduce the veins and bunched at once.

Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal.

So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that swollen glands and even goitre disappear when used steadily.—Adv.
